

New Range of 2010 Sewing Courses from Internationally-acclaimed Tutor

Sue Hazell (<http://www.sewing-tuition.co.uk>) the International Sewing Tutor based in Chipping Norton, Oxfordshire, has added a further 13 training courses to her sewing tuition range for 2010. Students travel from across the world to attend these classes. The additional one-day courses available in the New Year are:

- Zip Clinic
- Craft Club
- Tote Bags
- Cushion Club
- Perfect Piping
- Children's Class
- Making vintage cushions
- The basics of clothing alterations
- Introduction to patchwork and quilting
- Making costumes for school plays and shows
- 'Finish your project day'
- Basic machine embroidery
- Bunting, tablecloths, awnings and garden umbrellas

The courses have been designed to meet an increasing demand from both men and women who are interested in learning sewing, crafts, and soft furnishing skills. The students receive one-to-one tuition in small groups. Attendees can bring along their own fabrics and materials, or choose to have these provided.

The range of courses run by Sue Hazell spans basic skills such as 'How to use a sewing machine', to advanced courses like 'Making loose covers'. An increasing number of people are attending the sewing classes with a view to setting up their own home business. Anyone who books 2 of the one-day sewing classes can take advantage of Sue Hazell's 'Starting your own sewing business' course, free of charge.

Sue Hazell holds the National Teaching Certificate for Tutoring Adults, and teaches all aspects of soft furnishing. She teaches across the UK and in Europe. Sue regularly contributes 'How To Make' articles for 'Sewing World' magazine, and has demonstrated at the 'BBC Good Homes Show'.

"The recession and the threat of redundancy have meant more people are looking for other ways to earn a living, particularly those with young children. This allows them to set up their own sewing business from home", comments Sue Hazell. "I believe in taking the 'mystery' out of working with fabrics. Sewing soon becomes a passion for many of my students. They come back time and time again to learn new skills."

Sue Hazell's sewing tuition courses are held on Thursdays, Fridays, Saturdays and Sundays at a cost of £99 per person per day. Classes can be held anywhere in the country by arrangement with Sue's 'Sewing-on-Wheels' training. Students can bring along their own sewing machines if they prefer, or use the machines provided. More information and course availability can be found on Sue Hazell's website <http://www.sewing-tuition.co.uk> or by phoning 01608 644877.
